THE ESSAY

Created by Professor Deartra D. Boone

A close-up, high-angle shot of a fountain pen nib resting on a piece of lined paper. The pen is dark-colored with gold accents. The nib is positioned in the center-right of the frame, pointing downwards. The paper has faint, cursive handwriting visible, including the word "writing" and the number "10". A soft shadow of the pen is cast to the right. A solid blue horizontal bar is located above the first text block.

Understanding your readers' expectations is the key to writing a successful college essay.

Your instructors at the college level will have different expectations from your high school teachers.
